

CBTR PUBLICATIONS

Walker E, Ross J, Yuan Y, Davis FG (2019). Socioeconomic Status, Urban-Rural Residence, and Brain Cancer Survival in Canada: 1996 – 2008. Accepted, Current Oncology.

Walker EV, Davis FG & CBTR founding collaborators (2019). Malignant Primary Brain and Other Central Nervous System Tumours Diagnosed in Canada from 2009 to 2013. Neurooncology 21(3), 360–369, 2019 | doi:10.1093/neuonc/noy195 | Advance Access date 12 January 2019

Eckstrand A, Shack L, Pham T, Davis F (2018). The Impact of Hospital Discharge Linkage on Case Ascertainment of Brain Tumours in the Alberta Cancer Registry, 2010-2015. Journal of Registry Management:45;3, 109-116.

Yuan Y, Amjad S, Eckstrand A, Sevick R, Scott J, Devji S, Bertrand C, King M, Brunka V, Maplethorpe E, Walker E, Muanza T, Davis FG (2018). On Capturing Radiological Diagnoses Of Brain Tumours To Provide Complete Population Data In Cancer Registries In Canada. Journal of Registry Management 45: 167-172.

Yuan Y, Ross J, Shi Q, Davis FG. Conditional survival after a diagnosis of malignant brain tumour in Canada: 2000–2008. (2017) Current Oncology 24(5):e341-e347. doi: 10.3747/co.24.3579.

Yuan Y, Shi Q, Li M, Nagamuthu C*, Andres E*, Davis FG. (2016). Canadian brain cancer survival rates by tumour type and region: 1992-2008. Canadian Journal of Public Health Revue Canadienne de Santé Publique. 107(1): e37-42.

Davis FG, Nagamuthu C*, Ross J* and Megyesi J (2015). Current Status of Brain Tumour Surveillance in Canada and Why it Matters. Journal of Registry Management, 42(4):139-45.

OTHER RELEVANT PUBLICATIONS

Zacharia D, Shaw A, Woods R, De P, Davis F (2018): Case-Completeness of Nonmalignant Central Nervous System Tumours in the Canadian Cancer Registry, 2011-2015. Journal of Registry Management 45:3; 117-131.